From Pastor Lisa

"Pastor Lisa

"How was the trip to Israel?!!" - everyone

Well.... there's a question I cannot answer in one page!

The shortest of answers is, of course – good. It was very good. Good. Tov... as in, we were taught to say “good morning” in Hebrew: “Boker Tov” (morning good). Our guide also told us that if we couldn't remember that, to just mumble “broken toe” and that would be pretty close!

As in, God saw the creation he had created and it was very good.

That still doesn't tell someone much about what we experienced. And it begs a question that I'm wrestling with for Sunday's sermon: How do you tell someone about an experience that changed everything?

Once the video is finished, full of pictures taken on our journey to the Holy Land, we will invite you to an event and do some showing and telling of what it looked and felt like for us nine pilgrims from LCC and our companions. And never fear, you will no doubt hear snippets sprinkled into sermons and conversations that we learned and saw and heard there.

But it wasn't just information we gleaned in Israel. It was new relationships, with one another and with our understanding of the Bible and the people and places in it, including stories we'd heard a hundred times before. It was glimpses of the culture and history and land that shaped Jesus, his religion and the people around him. It was a renewal of our baptism in the very waters of the Jordan River where Jesus was baptized by John. We saw sites of battles that never seemed to have anything to do with us before, and stood in places where Jesus healed people and talked to them, where prophets were called by God to act.

And it changed us.

Travel always does, if we let it; opens our eyes to see in a new way through the people and places we encounter. Sometimes, we are lucky to do this through friends' travels and experiences, since not all of us can go everywhere or, maybe, anywhere at all. We are even able to do it through books and studies that can open up new understandings. Our faith grows this way, too. We simply do not grow or learn all by ourselves, insulated from everything.

"And it was very good." Thanks be to God, who fashioned and made us and called it all good!

See you in church,
Pr. Lisa

Celebrating 100 years of Lutheran Social Services

LSS is celebrating 100 years this year! There have been a variety of names through the years, as well as lots of services offered. Originally helping destitute children and orphans, eventually offering a home for pregnant teenagers – now programs have expanded tremendously and range from therapy (counseling for gambling, farm stress, at risk youth, family, violence – even a residential psychiatric program), to senior independence, healthy families, affordable housing all over ND, and humanitarian services (disaster response and refugee resettlement). Check out lssnd.org to see more about what they do as the social service arm of and in partnership with the Lutheran churches!

As part of the celebration, LSS reproduced a cookbook, originally done in the 1920's by the First Lutheran Ladies Aid of Fargo for the Lutheran Home. These are available for purchase for $25 – it is a true vintage treasure! (See Pr. Lisa's copy in her office.) Churches all over ND are having good ol' church potlucks to help LSS celebrate their 100th - and we are joining in the fun! Ours will be after worship on Sunday March 31. Wouldn't it be fun if some of the dishes we brought were from the old cookbook? Or from one of LCC's? There are things you've never heard of in there, and old favorites too. Come and see, and let's have fun at an old fashioned church potluck just for fun! LSS will have displays so you can see all they do, and leave a free will offering if you like.

"Where We Belong" by Lynn Austin

This novel reveals the adventure of a lifetime for two determined socialite sisters; Rebecca and Flora Hawes.

In 1890 the rules for Victorian women are strict. But these two women are not typical Victorian women. They live with their wealthy father in an upscale neighborhood in Chicago, but the story finds them traveling in the Sinai Desert in a blinding sandstorm. The two women along with servants and local guides are on a quest to find an important biblical manuscript. As they travel, the story reveals memories of the past, recalling events that brought them to this time and place.

Each chapter is a story of its own that will keep the reader turning pages faster and faster. There are many great adventures, great history lessons, and remarkable stories.

Hillbilly Elegy by J D Vance

This book is a memoir of the journey in the young life of JD Vance, a 31yr old Yale Law School graduate. What makes his story interesting and unique is his hillbilly upbringing. His family migrated from the hills of eastern Kentucky to an Ohio steel town to find work. The family took all their hillbilly culture with them - their screaming, swearing, fighting and fierce family loyalty.

His childhood is full of anxiety and uncertainty as his mother is an addict who jumps from husband to husband. The constant in his life are his grandparents who have the same crazy hillbilly ways but offer a more stable home where they stressed a good education.

If you can put aside the language in this book, you'll learn about the culture of this family and how JD changed his own outcome.

Dear Members of Lutheran Church of the Cross,

Thank you so much for the kindness and love you shared with my family and I throughout the last few weeks. We received such heart-warming messages from you, our dear church family and with each note and word, we felt blessed. Thank you for remembering Bob in this way and always.

The family member who wrote Bob's obituary obtained information about Bob's activities from newspaper clippings I have saved over the years. Bob and I were charter members of LCC, a fact that Bob was very proud. He also was very active in the church activities as he was president of the Church Council and took part in many fund raisers when additions were added to our church building. This information was never printed in the local newspaper and therefore was not written in the obituary. I just wanted you to know why his church affiliation was overlooked in his obituary.

He rarely missed a Sunday service since he loved going to church when he was well. By the way, the last day he attended was January 13, 2019.

Sincerely,
Gladys Bain

Angel Penny

I found a penny today
Just laying on the ground.
But it's not just a penny
This little coin I've found.

Found pennies come from heaven
that's what my Grandpa told me.
He said Angels tossed them down.
Oh, how I loved that story!

He said when an Angel misses you
They toss a penny down,
Sometimes just to cheer you up
To make a smile out of your frown.

So don't pass by that penny
When you're feeling blue.
It may be a penny from heaven
That an Angel's tossed to you.

McKenzie Johnson is a senior in high school this year, and she is an angel among us! Daughter of Robin and Brian and sister to Avery, Kenzie has been active at church all her life and is a real leader at the ripe old age of not quite 18. She plans and leads music, playing guitar with the Living Waters group at Wednesday worship; leads music for the Wednesday church school ; co-teaches the 4th-5th graders and often does special music at services. She is active in the youth group and helps with the younger youth. She was a counselor at Camp of the Cross last summer. She is funny and creative and enthusiastic, and did I mention
