We are up to $71,000. $79,000 to go. Keep eating and turn in the slips please! The slips can be turned into the box in the narthex or placed in the clear plastic bin next to the secretary's door.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Welcome to Lutheran Church of the Cross's Worship Service! If you are visiting with us today via livestreaming or in person, we welcome you.

Stewardship Reflection for Sunday, August 29, 2021 ~ 14th Sunday of Pentecost Mark 7: 1-8, 14-15, 21-23 18. "Are you so dull?" he asked. "Don't you see that nothing that enters a man from the outside can make him 'unclean'. 20 He went on: "What comes out of a man is what makes him 'unclean.' Jesus has gathered a crowd to repudiate some of the burdensome Jewish ceremonial laws, explaining that it is not food or unclean hands that make a person unclean but the multitude of evil inclinations that reside deep in the heart. What does this mean for us as stewards? It means that we must acknowledge that sinful inclinations that come from deep inside us keep us from doing what we are called to do. What is in your heart that needs to be brought into the light? (Source: NIV Stewardship Study Bible)

Volunteer Opportunity: Sunday Church Opener

For many years, faithful volunteers have opened the church on Sunday mornings. While this task takes about 20 minutes, it is important to the function of the church and Sunday services, and it needs to be done each week. LCC's long-time Sunday Church Openers are ready to pass this task on to a new volunteer or volunteers, and we need your help to fill this position as soon as possible. This position could be held by a number of volunteers, so one individual doesn't have to commit to every Sunday.

The Sunday Church Opener unlocks the west/east entry doors by 8:15 a.m. each Sunday. Depending on the season, this may also require some light leaf or snow removal right at the entry doors when unlocking. The inside opening duties include turning on the sanctuary lights, the master power switch for the sound booth, and the air conditioners (summertime), as well as starting the water pump for the baptism fountain. The last task (which may be argued as one of the most important) is to make coffee and get the urns to the serving table and plugged in, so they are ready for fellowship time following the service.

Volunteers will be trained in the Sunday church opening duties prior to taking on this important task. Please call the church office at 223-1001 or let Pastor Lisa or Art Wheeler know if you are interested in this volunteer opportunity.
